Dubois '51

BEHOLD THY SONS

To you, most gracious Virgin Mary, Mother of Our Savior and Mother of us all, we men of Dubois pay humble homage.

Into your holy hands we place this, our yearbook, confident that you will intercede with your divine Son to shower His blessings upon us, your devoted children.

Dear Mother—our Life, our Sweetness, our Hope—protect us as we proceed on our earthly journey and bring us one day safely home to Jesus and to you.

NEW YORK, NEW YORK

DEDICATION

All who were present on the occasion of Bishop Dubois High Schools' first commencement exercises last June were delighted with the momentous announcement made by His Eminence Cardinal Spellman concerning the advancement of our revered Principal, Father Buckley, to the title of Very Reverend Monsignor.

This honor bestowed upon Monsignor Buckley by Our Holy Father is an official recognition of the tremendous spirit, zeal, and labor by which he has made Bishop Dubois one of the foremost educational institutions in the archdiocese.

To Monsignor Buckley, our guide and our friend, we joyfully dedicate this yearbook.

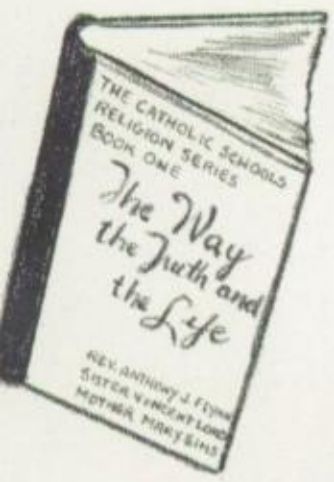
Man Gathers Knowledge

Bishop Dubois High School is proud to be one of the sanctuaries of scholarship dedicated by His Eminence Francis Cardinal Spellman to the noble task of building citizens who will reflect credit on their Church and on their Country. Here the student's mind is developed, his will trained, and his body strengthened. The end result is the Catholic Gentleman—prepared to take his place in society, to choose his career for the future, and to work out his salvation for eternity.



Father Fleming appraises an essay on English classicism read by Alfred Bunols.

Brother Henry demonstrates the construction of angles in his Trig class.

Franklin Kuo, Editor of the Alert, meets the deadline.

The history, culture, and language of La Belle France constitute the French course under Brother Gerard.

The wonders of life are revealed in Biolo class by Brother Thomas Edward.

After the strenuous calisthenics comes the fun of active games under Mr. Walling.

James Freehill and Harry Halm debate the pros and cons of a timely topic.

The mysteries of Chemistry are unfolded in an experiment conducted by Bro. William.

The seniors enjoy the privilege of their private "walk" during lunch period.

FACULTY

The worth of a school must be measured by th abilities of its instructors and the ready willingnes of its students.

Our high school is blessed with priests, brothe and laity who are not only richly talented in the various subjects, but who are ardently interested i our physical, mental, and spiritual betterment. The very lives are unselfishly devoted to each studer entrusted to their care.

Through the years we shall remember these me as competent counsellors and true friends.

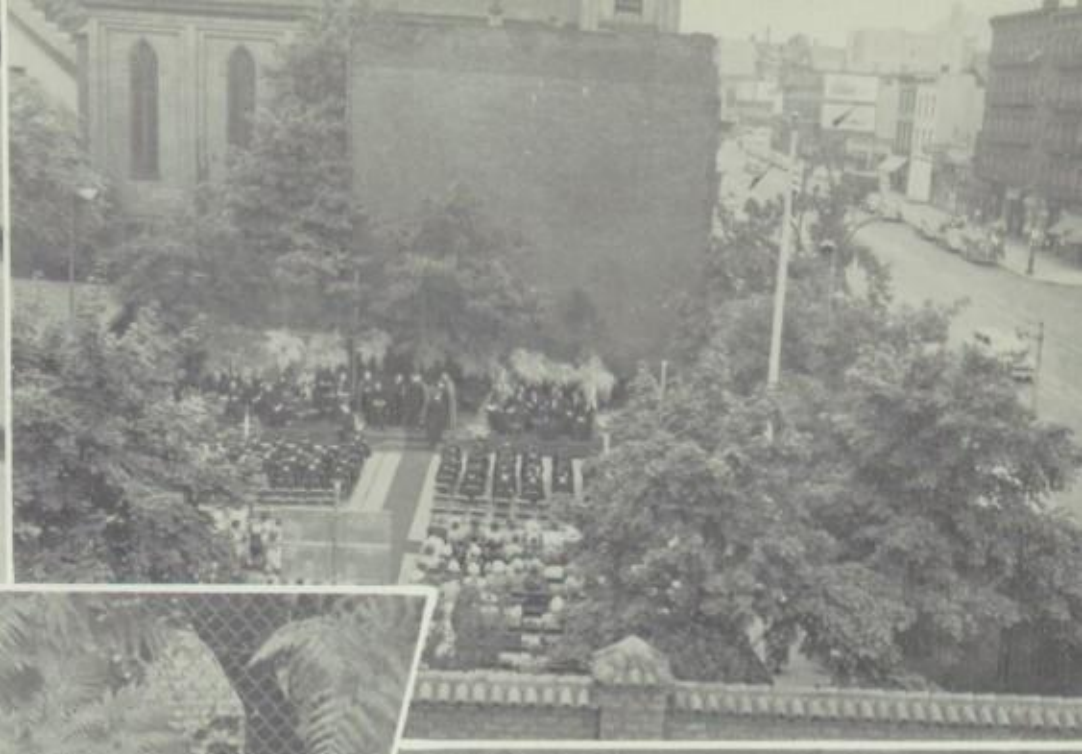
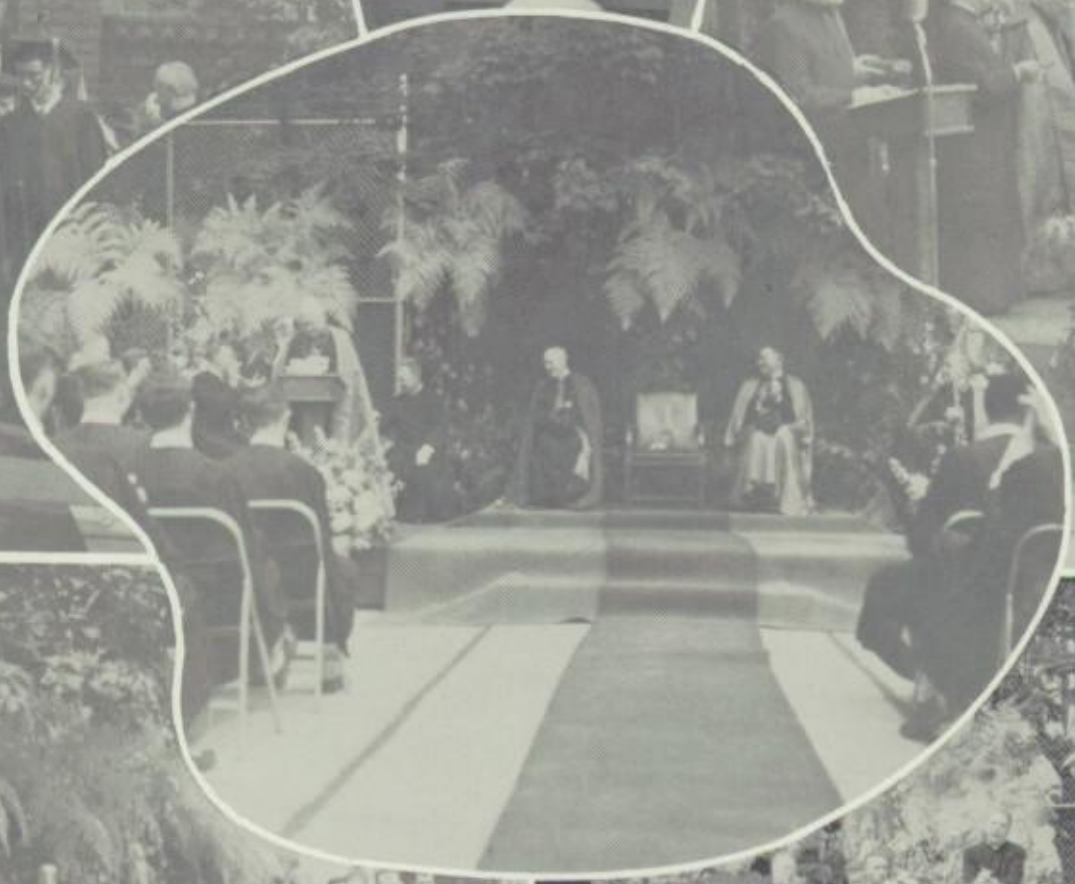
Highlight of 1950

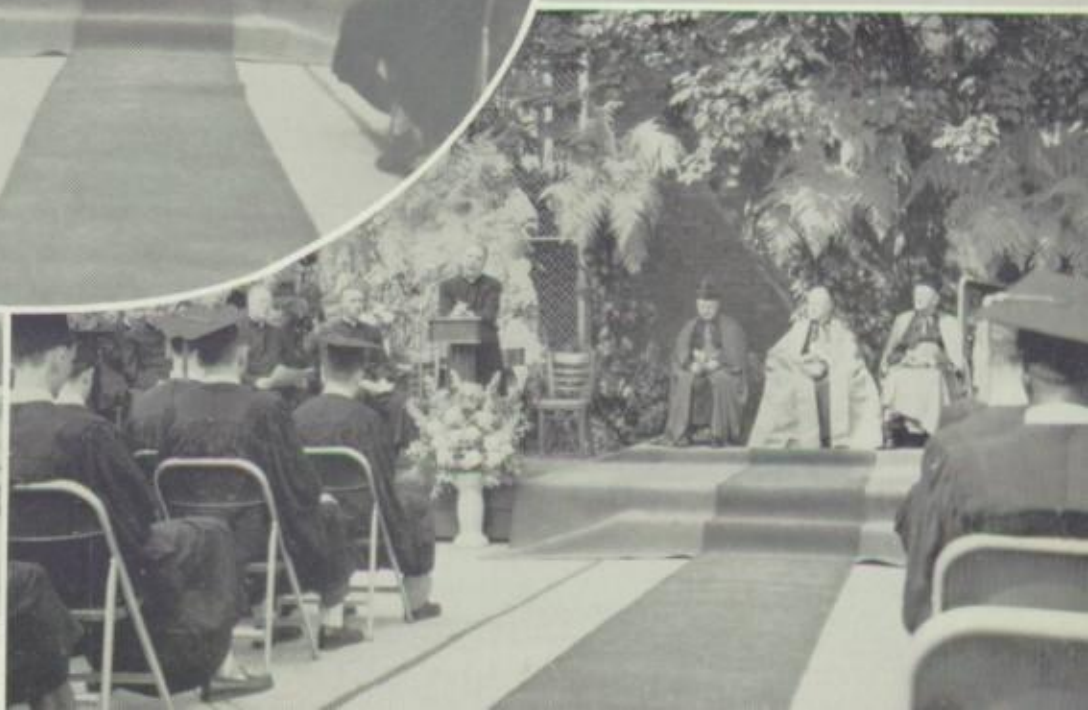
FIRST GRADUATION

On June 24, 1950, Bishop Dubois held its initia commencement exercises. It was a truly thrilling oc casion as His Eminence Francis Cardinal Spellman dis tributed diplomas to our school's first graduates. These photographs show scenes of the impressive ceremony which took place on our own school grounds.

James Rappaport of the senior class delivered the farewell speech and the guest speaker was Reverend Brother Loftus, President of Iona College.







Prom '50

The scenes shown on this page attest to the good time that was had by the graduates of '50 during their formal dance at the Concourse Plaza.

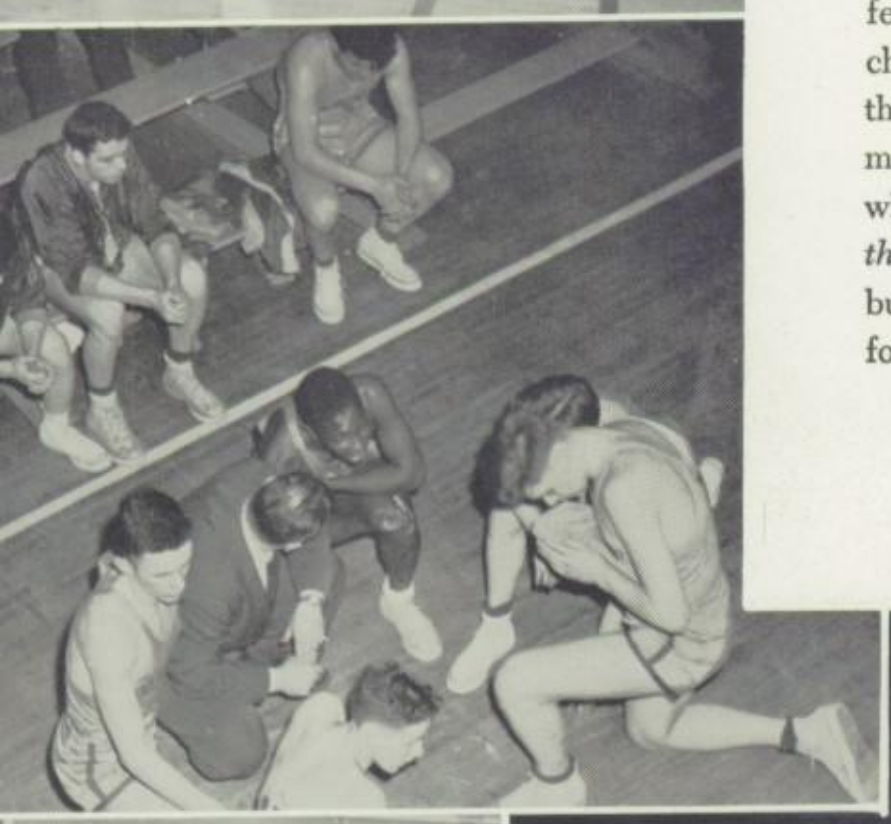
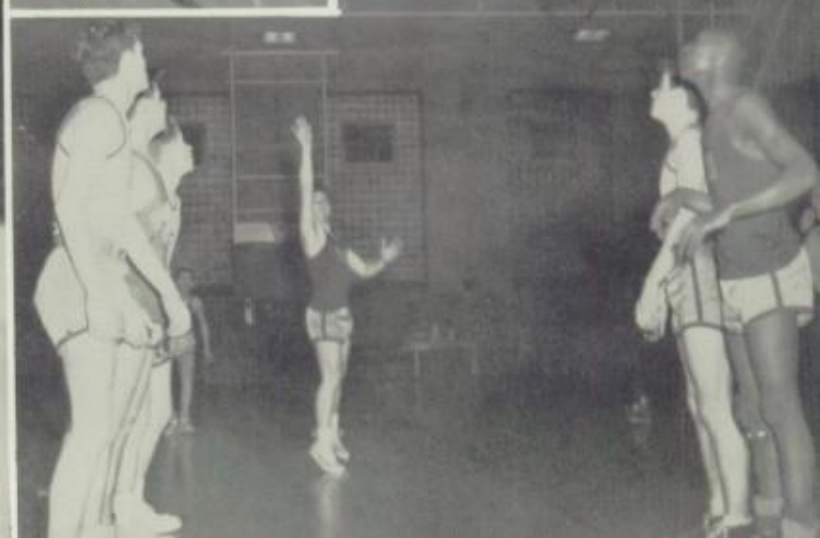
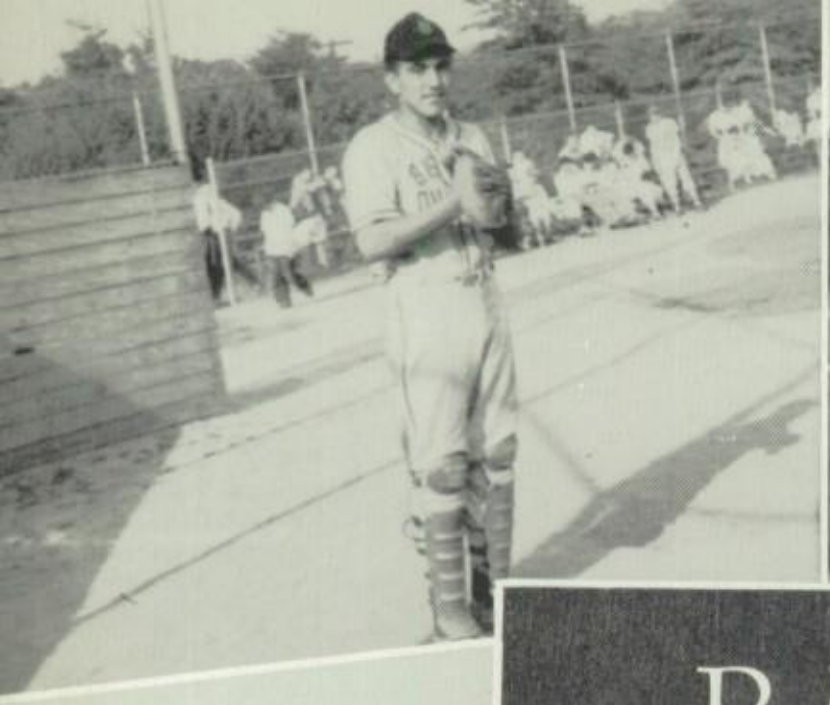
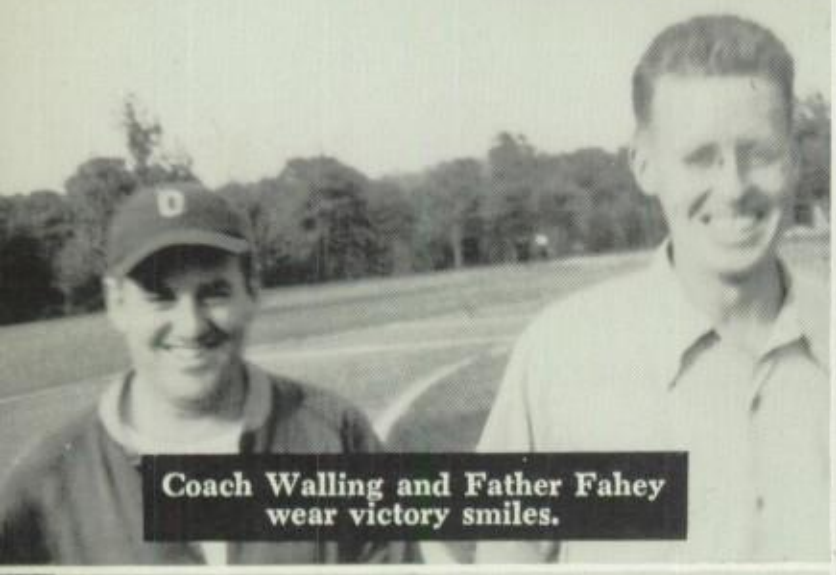
Athletic contests play an extremely important role in the training and development of American youth. Whether the contestants win, lose, or draw, carefully supervised sports have a far-reaching effect on their physical, mental and moral character. Teamwork, which teaches them the need and value of working harmoniously with others, sportsmanship, which demands fair play, alertness, quick thinking, and good judgment—all contribute toward a young man's preparations for the battle of life.



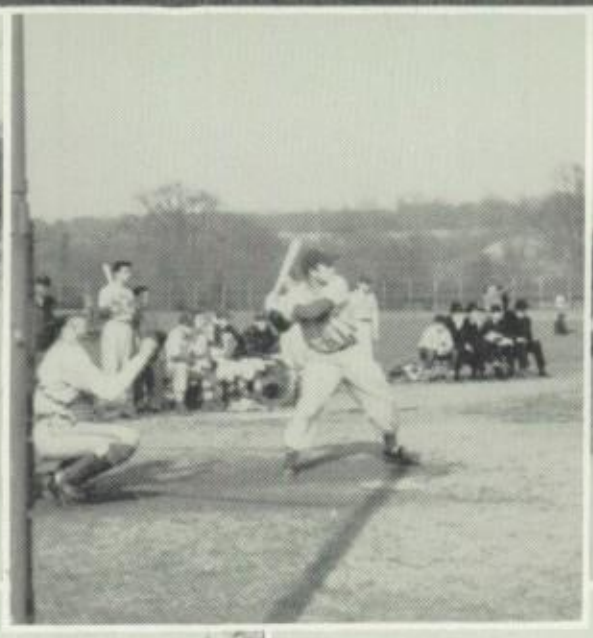




BASEBALL



Coach Walling and Father Fahey wear victory smiles.



Co-captains Arcoleo and Raphael receive the Rev. John F. White Memorial Trophy as champions of the I.C.H.S. Athletic Assn.
